

Fringe benefits

Our pick of 10 highlights from this summer's Fringe Festival

1

Bridget Christie: An Ungrateful Woman

The winner of the 2013 Edinburgh Comedy Award returns with a biting new show about politics, the media and more.

2-25 August (except 11th)
11.10 / The Stand Comedy Club

2

Late'n'Live

One of the longest-running late-night comedy line-up shows on the Fringe, attracting big names and emerging talent.

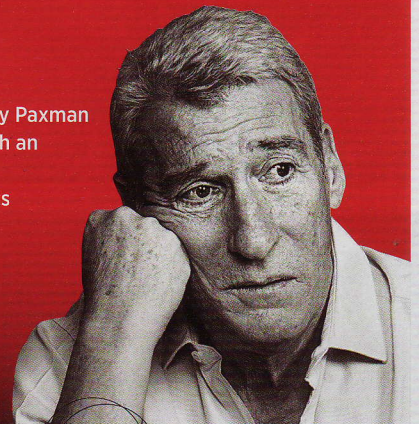

1-25 August / 01.00
Gilded Balloon

3

Paxo

Veteran broadcaster Jeremy Paxman makes his Fringe debut with an hour about pogonophobia (fear of beards), underpants and the human condition.

18-25 August / 17.20
Pleasance Courtyard

4

Sara Pascoe vs History

The writer, stand-up and actor (as seen in BBC comedy WIA) turns her gaze on the past for an hour of silliness and self-deprecation.

30 July-25 August (except 11th)
20.15 / Assembly George Square Studios

5

Beardyman: One Album Per Hour

The award-winning beatboxer and comedian bases his act on performing songs suggested by his live audience.

15-17 August / 23.15
Pleasance Courtyard

6

Camille O'Sullivan: 10

The Irish chanteuse is back for her 10th anniversary at the Fringe with a mixture of old favourites and new songs. Funny and heartbreaking by turn.

30 July-24 August (except Mondays or 12th)
21.45 / The Assembly Rooms

7

Men in the Cities

Fringe First Award-winning theatremaker Chris Goode presents a powerful new play about patriarchy, in association with London's Royal Court Theatre.

31 July-24 August
times vary / Traverse

8

Hot Dub Time Machine

This club night takes you from the 1950s to the present day with songs from each year. The debut in 2013 was a triumph.

1-24 August (except 3-6th, 11-12th or 18-19th)
00.30 Underbelly, Bristo Square

9

Frisky and Mannish - Just Too Much

The Fringe's favourite musical duo return after a break of two years with a new show offering their hilarious take on pop music.

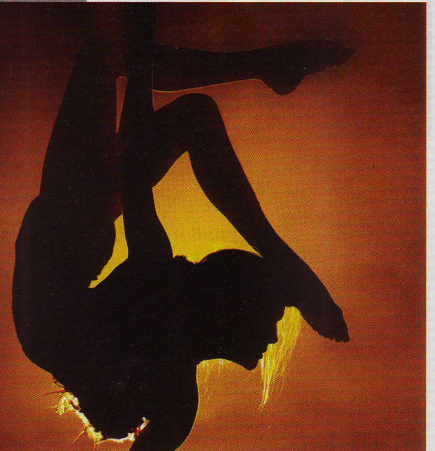

30 July-25 August / 19.35
Underbelly, Bristo Square

10

Circa - Beyond

A beautiful new show from the skilled Australian circus troupe. Promises to be a moving big top experience.

31 July-24 August
19.00 / Underbelly Bristo Square

See edfringe.com for tickets